

Healthcare Re-imagined: Learning from Olympic Athletes

Aspen Health Forum Evening Exchange
Wednesday, October 3, 2007
St. Regis Aspen

GE Healthcare is working with medical leaders in the Olympic Movement to advance the use of innovative technologies that are helping to provide insight into the diagnosis and treatment of musculoskeletal injuries and heart disease.

Tonight's discussion will address how a focus on early health can benefit both elite athletes and consumers worldwide.

Featuring:

Jimmy Roberts, NBC Sports

Joe Hogan, President & CEO, GE Healthcare

Margie Hunt, Head Athletic Trainer, USOC

Picabo Street, three-time U.S. Olympian, Alpine Skiing

Dr. Jack Taunton, Vancouver 2010 Chief Medical Officer

Aaron Peirsol, two-time U.S. Olympian, Swimming

Dr. Malissa Wood, clinical cardiologist, Massachusetts General Hospital

Following the presentation, please join us in the foyer to enjoy refreshments, meet the panelists and see live product demonstrations of the technology discussed tonight.
