

Professional Societies and Congressional Contact Information:

If you are concerned about the impact these reimbursement reductions will have on patient care, you should contact one of the following professional societies to find out how they can assist you to advocate your position about this legislation:

Academy of Molecular Imaging	http://www.ami-imaging.org/	Phone: (310) 267-2614
American Association of Orthopaedic Surgeons	http://www.aaos.org/	Phone: (847) 823-7186
American College of Cardiologists	http://www.acc.org/	Phone: (800) 253-4636
American College of Obstetricians & Gynecologists	http://www.acog.org/	Phone: (202) 638-5577
American College of Radiologists	http://www.acr.org/	Phone: (703) 648-8900
American Council on Exercise:	www.acefitness.org	Phone: (800) 825-3636
American Society for Bone and Mineral Research	www.asbmr.org	Phone: (202) 367-1161
American Society of Echocardiography	http://asecho.org/	Phone: (919)861-5574
International Society for Clinical Densitometry:	www.iscd.org	Phone: (860) 586-7563
Society of Nuclear Medicine	http://www.snm.org/	Phone: (703) 708-9000

If you would like to voice your opposition to this recent legislation, please contact your congressman:

1. Go to: <http://www.congressmerge.com/onlinedb/>
2. Enter necessary information including zip code.
3. You will have the option of clicking the link to email your Member of Congress or Senator directly.
4. This link also provides a mailing address. You can also send a letter, but keep in mind that it takes 2 - 3 weeks to get mail irradiated and into the Congressional offices.
5. This link also provides phone numbers.

